What is the Stanislaus County Commission for Women?

On July 1, 1979 the Stanislaus County Commission for Women (SCCW) was established as an independent, non-governmental organization to promote an awareness of issues that concern women. The Commission receives no governmental funding.

Objectives

- To promote an awareness of issues that concern women of all ages, ethnicities, sexual orientations, economic backgrounds and beliefs.
- To promote knowledge of individual women’s strengths and resources and to support women in the pursuit of their individual choices and goals.
- To validate and celebrate the achievements of women collectively and individually throughout Stanislaus County.
- To support legislation and programs that address the needs of all women and children.

Activities of SCCW

- Sponsor and co-sponsor community events which relate to the changing roles and responsibilities of women of all ages, and which are of special interest to women in the community.
- Sponsor the Stanislaus County Outstanding Women Celebration held annually in March in conjunction with National Women’s History Month.
- Sponsor the Esto Broughton Reception, an event honoring all elected women in Stanislaus County.
- Provide scholarships for women to further their education.

Newsletter

SCCW publishes Women’s Voices, a newsletter about its activities and news of interest to women. The newsletter is free to all registered members.

A general membership meeting is held annually in July for the purpose of electing officers.
